Basic Adult Leader Outdoor Orientation

What's BALOO?

Cub Scout packs have the opportunity to conduct overnight camping activities, as long as the activity is conducted at a council-approved location and is under the direction of a leader in the pack trained to do so. The training course to prepare these leaders is called Basic Adult Leader Outdoor Orientation, BALOO, for short, and is composed of BOTH an online portion as well as this overnight portion.

A BALOO-Trained Leader is required if your Cub Pack plans an Overnight Camping Activity.

Online BALOO prerequisite training is available and recommended prior to attending this course (those in attendance who have not yet completed the online portion will simply not receive their certificate of verification of training until they do so).

Go to my.scouting.org and click on Learning Center Link on the right
Scroll down to BALOO link and follow instructions.
